

Next half term, we are studying Our World in the Future in Geography, Electricity in Science, formal and impersonal writing in English and Fractions, Decimals and Percentages and statistics in Maths. These homework tasks can be done at any point throughout the half term. There are 12 homework tasks to choose from and each homework task is worth one point. You can do one, two, three or even all!

Useful Links:

TT Rockstars: <https://www.ttrockstars.com/login>

Bug Club: <https://www.activelearnprimary.co.uk/login?c=0>

Useful Key Words:

Circuit Symbol Wires Batteries

Local Area Future Changes Global Warming

Fraction Decimals Percentages

Use the internet or books to research 10 facts about the Global warming.

Interview a friend or family member and find out what they do to protect our planet.

Write 10 sentences including our Common Exception Words. How many can you include in one sentence?

Write a short informal letter to an MP about what you think should change in Bradford to help the planet.

Can you make your own circuit using objects from around the house and label them?
How detailed can you make it?

Log onto Bug club and see how many of the alien questions you can answer!

Using the I pads, research how and who developed electricity. .

Design and create your own invention of something that could develop re-usable energy.

Read with an adult twice a week and get them to sign your homework diary.

Complete each calculation (we have looked at questions like these in our arithmetic sessions)

$$2343 \times 12$$

$$1452 \times 23$$

$$24567 \times 7$$

Can we beat the other class on TT Rockstars? A battle of the bands is available now!

Create your own futuristic electrical car.

